Happy Holidays to all of you. It's Christmas Eve tomorrow and Christmas the next day, Kwanzaa Saturday, so no sales pitch or news update other than, as has become part of the Grab Bag tradition, we are extending the Christmas Surprise Package offer for a few weeks after Christmas.

Christmas Surprise Package Offer – EXTENDED to January 15, 2016

Why extend this amazing offer ? Because it's the nice thing to do. We realize many of you are so full of the Christmas Spirit that you spend your money on gifts for your loved ones rather than yourself. This wonderful act of charity often leaves no money for you to buy a Palladium Surprise Package for yourself. We think that sacrifice is pretty awesome and what the holiday season is all about, so we extend the offer so that you selfless souls can pick up a Surprise Package after the holidays. We know this happens, because a lot people over the years have thanked us for the extension for this very reason.

The extension is also for you Johnny Come-Latelies who are so caught up in the holiday frenzy, work and life that somehow you miss placing your order for the Christmas Surprise Package before the offer ends. It's also for those of you who wish you had ordered one (or another one) but forgot. Lastly, it is our way to carry that holiday good cheer into the New Year. So get your post-holiday Surprise Package and enjoy. Please note that this offer will not be extended further. This is your last chance. Happy Holidays.

UPDATE: We've been shipping like madmen

With Christmas just days away, orders have been pouring in, and we love it. If there is a down side, it's that picking, pulling, packing and shipping orders is about all we've done the past week and a half! We've tried to ship them all out as quickly as possible to give everyone their best shot at getting them in time for Christmas. Only a half dozen that requested a sketch, presented a vague Wish List, or had special considerations, did not ship immediately. That includes the gent who ordered 15 Surprise Packages. Whew! I love playing Santa and the Palladium crew all enjoy knowing we are putting smiles on the faces of gamers worldwide.

The Palladium Office Party

Last Friday was the Palladium office party. I felt bad because we had put in a very long day shipping out The Rifter® #71 & 72 Double Issue, which people are loving, so it was worth the effort to ship to our subscribers that day. We were all dragging by 7:00 PM, yet somehow being among our friends rejuvenated us all and the party was nothing short of wonderful. Lots of laughs, hugs and fun till about midnight. It is truly a blessing to work with these amazing people and an honor to call them my friends. Each one special in their own way. I wrote a Murmur about it early this week, but I'm still smiling about that frenzied day of shipping (talk about teamwork), followed by a joyful evening of delicious food, drink, friends and love. Times like that warm my heart.

Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays to you all

Wishing you a joyful and merry Christmas, from all of us at Palladium Books to all of you. Know that you matter and are appreciated. May the holidays be full of joy, laughter and games. And remember, if you missed getting the Palladium Christmas Surprise Package, you still can for the next few weeks. Game on! Ho, ho, ho.

You guys truly blew my mind... 25 years plus [as a Palladium player] and you guys made my first experience with the X-Mas Surprise Package a completely personal one. Thanks again.

B.M. in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, writes: This will be the fourth year I get the Surprise Package as it is now part of my Christmas tradition. My favorite part is the total surprise and personalization that each pack gets, but my Number One favorite thing is the comment left by Kevin in my copy of Rifts® Africa that said, "Don't kill your players too quickly!" I thought it was great. My players? Not so much. lol

N.M. in Colorado Springs, Colorado, writes: Recently swapped over to the Palladium rules system because I got tired of the edition wars of other systems. Your products speak for themselves by never needing a revision to the rules. I am now trying to expand my

J.Z. in Chesapeake, Virginia, writes: Thanks for your hard work and dedication to the RPG fans. I firmly believe Palladium's decades of work pushed the envelope and forced other games to evolve their content. Still, nobody comes close! I am not picky, and the Surprise Package is more the novelty of Santa Kevin and the gang. Although it never fails that I am wowed come Christmas!

[You wowed us, J.Z., with your kind words. Thank you. All our fans are important to us and the Christmas Surprise Packages are designed to wow them and make Christmas a little more cheery. Glad to know they do. Merry Christmas. – KS]

Surviving Depression, especially at Christmas time

The holiday season is a time of joy for most people, but for some it is a time of spiraling darkness that threatens to consume everything.

I'm writing this for you: The people lost to depression. Please don't give up. I have had my own struggles with depression. I was able to find my way out, but I know many people – dear people – still engulfed by depression. A few seem lost in it and I worry for them. Others fight a difficult and debilitating ongoing battle with it.

Part of the problem is our loved ones don't understand depression or they are scared by it – or more to the point, seeing their loved ones change before their eyes. Fading away into the shadows and silence.

I think the average person thinks of depression as feeling sad and down, or angry. I mean, we've all felt depressed, right? We know what that feels like. Except that's not "clinical depression." For one thing, you don't snap out it after a few hours or a bad day or two.

Depression is more like despair. I've heard depression described as being paralyzed, but that is not really accurate. You feel numb and disconnected. You have a sense of what's going on around you. You know you should be doing something, but you are helpless to do anything about it. You can't deal with it. You are there as a spectator to your own, slow motion 100 car pile-up that you cannot seem to avoid. So you do nothing, because you can't do anything else. And that makes you more angry and sad. More despondent and overwhelmed. It is as if someone has stolen your joy. The spark that motivates you and makes life worth living.

Before long, you lose yourself inside your despair and problems – you shut yourself off to the world around you and the people you love. You don't call. You don't visit. They think it is because you don't care, when it's really you care too much. You feel worthless and you don't want to burden them. Besides, you don't know what help is available exactly, or what to do. And when you sink farther into the darkness, or a loved one tries to help, you get angry at them. You may snap at them, call them names, yell, or just snarl or moan and say, "I'm fine. Please, leave me alone." Or "I can't deal with this right now." Before crawling back into some corner where you just want to be left alone.

Isolation is bad. Don't close yourself off. Try to talk to someone. Anyone who cares. They love you. They need you. Try to find your joy. Anything that brings you joy. (NOT drugs or booze! That's not joy.) And do NOT think this is the end. Don't you dare give up. Seek help. You may need professional help. It is very, very difficult to snap yourself out of depression and come to functioning terms with it. In many cases, it's impossible without professional help – especially if your depression is the result of a chemical imbalance inside of you or emotional trauma.

Please do not be ashamed of needing help. If you had the flu or broke your arm, you would see a doctor. THIS IS NO DIFFERENT. Even today there remains a stigma about seeing a therapist and/or psychiatrist. The first talks and helps you come to understand what you are going through and ways to deal with it. The second is a medical doctor who prescribes medication. Don't make excuses for not getting help, that's the depression tightening its grip on you. Fight it. No, money is not an excuse either. Find a free clinic, talk to a friend, a family member, a priest, your flippin' family doctor, anyone who can help you – who can toss you that life line. Do it. And if you are feeling suicidal, call the free programs. Call a loved one. Life is precious. YOU are precious. Help is there.

Tens of millions of people (probably more) suffer from mental illness. Oh, there is that ugly, ugly, word, "mental illness." You may be thinking, "I don't want mental illness." Well, you don't want cancer either, but if you had it, you would go to the doctor, get treatment and fight like the dickens to beat it. This is no different. If the word is too horrible and embarrassing, call it something else, something with less of a stigma, but please get help for it.

Maybe this will help you: I, Kevin Siembieda, have seen a therapist off and on for years; Ro b Justice, a great guy. We even became friends. He helped me beyond measure to get through some very difficult times: My divorce, the Crisis of Treachery and other things. Before that, my son, Adam, was diagnosed with Attention Deficit Disorder and we saw a family counselor who helped.

Erick Wujcik

battled manic depression his entire life. His periods of depression, usually lasting 2-3 years at a time, were terrible for him, but he fought through it. Never gave up. Found what gave him joy and kept him going. Erick is the one who introduced me to Rob. Palladium editor,

Alex Marciniszyn

, has managed his anxiety and depression for more than 30 years now. You can too. Trust me. Trust us on this, you can make your life better.

The hustle and bustle of Christmas, the stress of family, the joy all around you that is somehow eluding YOU, can push you into despair and suicidal thoughts. Please, don't. Please, seek help. Please, turn to the people who love you, as well as seek professional guidance. People care. I care or I wouldn't be putting myself out there and writing this. You are not alone. Things can get better. It might not be easy, but it is worth the fight. You don't need to be strong. You don't need to hide your secret depression (just the opposite), but you do need to fight it and find help. To find joy again.

Hang in there and may the holidays bring you joy and hope and love. Merry Christmas and a better New Year.

Palladium Christmas Surprise Packages start NOW!

Can you believe it? It's that time again for the Palladium Christmas Surprise Package

! Palladium Books® has been doing Christmas Surprise Packages, or “Grab Bags,” for 17 or 18 years. It enables you to get several RPG titles ($86-95 worth for ONLY $42 plus shipping and handling) as gifts or for yourself. It is our way to say thank you to our many fans for being so kind and patient, and for your years of support. You are appreciated more than you may realize.

Christmas Surprise Packages are not just for Christmas. Whether you celebrate Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanzaa, or the Winter Solstice, or you're looking for a gift for a birthday, anniversary, graduation, or any special occasion that falls between now and February, a Surprise Package may be the ideal way to go. You get a ton of stuff on the cheap, you can get a bunch of autographs (if you want 'em), and you look like you spent a fortune.

This is also a great way to try that game setting you've wondered about (Splicers®, Dead Reign®, Chaos Earth®, Palladium Fantasy®, Nightbane®, etc.), or to get something for your favorite Game Master, or perhaps to get your player group to consider a new game or setting.

Your “Wish List” – The Palladium Surprise Packages are designed to simulate the fun, joy and surprise of the Christmas Season of Giving.

To do this, you submit a list of 10-14 Palladium products

(or more)

FOR EACH

Surprise Package you order. This list of 10-14 items for EACH Grab Bag

is critical

, because you will not know which items you’ll be getting.

That makes it just like a

Christmas gift

because it’s a surprise! Plus, Santa Kevin, who personally hand-picks every item for every Grab Bag, may toss in something extra like a limited edition print or T-shirt, or issue of The Rifter®, or something else he thinks you’ll enjoy.

Autographed books. For those of you who want them (which are most people), the available members of the Palladium staff, and any freelancers we can lasso at the time, are happy to autograph each and every book in your Surprise Package. This is the only way many fans, especially those in other countries, can EVER get signed books.

Send us your brief comments. There is a special form and format to fill out for Christmas Surprise Packages

, including a place where you can offer your brief

comments, suggestions, greetings and salutations.

It only costs $42 plus shipping to get $86-$95+ worth of Palladium products! First-timers are always nervous until they see the great value in their first Surprise Package. A typical Grab Bag has $86-$95 worth of product, sometimes more! Yes, sometimes more. Many people order 2-3. Some order 4-6, and some maniacs order even more! It makes sense, because it is a great way to fill holes in your own collection, treat yourself, get autographs, try new games and settings, and get your gaming pals gifts. SPREAD THE WORD about this great offer.

Zombie Time!

Think you can survive the Zombie Apocalypse? Do you have a desire to kick some zombie butt? Then you want the Dead Reign® RPG – available from Palladium Books® or as PDFs from DriveT
hruRPG.com

. There are currently six titles that are as much fun to read as they are to play. And more are coming.

Dead Reign® RPG – Core Rules –

everything you need to know to play

Experience the nightmare of being stalked by the living dead. Who can you trust? Where can you go to be safe? How do you fight the dead? Find out in Dead Reign® – a complete role-playing game that captures the horror, suspense and trauma of the post-apocalyptic world dominated by zombie hordes. And the zombies? More than what you may expect. All of them deadly.

- Rules are easy to learn.
- Combat is fast, fun and intuitive.
- The setting, brutal and unrelenting.
- Characters represent the last of humanity.
- Play ordinary people who must find a way to survive against impossible odds; 40 different occupations and notable skills for each.

- Or play one of the more extraordinary survivors who battle zombies and try to rescue the living. They don't mean to be heroes, they just are.

- They say there is no surviving a zombie bite. The Half-Living say otherwise. They are victims of a zombie attack, but instead of dying and turning, they come out of their coma more (or some would say, less) than human. The question is, might they turn at any time?

- Slouchers are the slow moving zombies. They gather in large herds and kill all they encounter.

- Flesh-Eating Zombies are fast and predatory. They hunt in packs, and stalk humans day and night.

- Mock Zombies are twisted abominations: The dead who retain a large portion of their mind and identity, but cannot accept what they have become. Most are quite insane and insist they are not monsters. They claim to be alive, and only want to help their “fellow man.” That last part might even be true, until the irresistible need to kill the living takes over.

- Pattern Zombies are the dead that only kill when they come face to face with the living or are attacked first. Unlike the Slouchers and other zombies, they don't seek out human prey. Rather, they are locked in some pattern from their past life, endlessly reenacting their job at the factory, or a typical day at home mowing the lawn or watching the game on a TV that no longer receives broadcasts.

- Thinkers are among the most dangerous: zombies that retain a level of cognitive thought and awareness. They can open a door or unlatch a gate, use a weapon such as a knife or axe, figure out ways to get inside strongholds and go around traps. Worst of all, other zombies follow them, and Thinkers often lead mobs of lesser zombies against the living.

- More than 30 pages describing zombies, with all the hows and whys of their behavior and their need to kill the living. Seven different types of zombies (more appear in the Dark Places and Endless Dead sourcebooks).
- Page after page of Zombie Apocalypse survival tips.
- Six Apocalyptic Character Classes, with any number of Ordinary People as survivors fighting to keep humanity alive.
- Death Cults and their leaders. Not all humans are allies.
- Retro-Savages, survivors who blame the apocalypse on technology, and feed people who still use guns, cars and tech, to the dead.
- Weapons, survival tips and how to fight the dead!

- Vehicles, equipment and notable resources.

- For a different kind of horror game, see Beyond the Supernatural™ RPG – Core Rules – $24.95 – 256 pages – Cat. No. 700.

Modern horror like you have never played before. Plausible setting, monsters and concepts that makes sense and will have you wondering if this stuff could be for real. 14 Psychic character classes, 42 occupations for “ordinary” people, more than 100 psychic abilities, creatures of darkness and more. Three new sourcebooks planned for 2016. A game for the thinking gamer.

- And for something completely different – Nightbane® RPG –

Core Rules – $24.95 – 240 pages – Cat. No. 730.

Nothing has been the same since Dark Day. Earth has been secretly invaded by demons from a hell that is eternal night. Doppelgangers replace many of the people you know and now run the world governments. The are human beings (or are they?) linked to something ancient and supernatural, and who conceal a monster within themselves. Inhuman alter-egos that wield supernatural powers and magic abilities. And some say, powers that can fight the monsters from the Nightlands. You, in fact, could be one of them and not even know it – yet.

COMING – Rifts® Sourcebook – The Coalition States: Heroes of

The Coalition States, along with Northern Gun and Lazlo, take the lead in the defense of North America. Heroes of Humanity explores the good and bad in the Coalition's efforts to save humanity and send this new threat back to the pits of Hell.

- New Coalition weapons, armor and war machines.

COMING – Rifts® Secrets of the Coalition States: The Disavowed

TM

“Desperate times require desperate measures. War has nothing to do with morality or justice. It’s all about winning or dying. We cannot bind our hands with high ideals, even our own, or worry about the laws of renegade nations or the rights of alien people. We must fight fire with fire. And you are the match.” – Colonel Lyboc addressing a Disavowed team

The Disavowed are so Top Secret that their existence is known only to a handful of the Coalition States' most elite, top echelon, with Joseph Prosek II the mastermind behind the Disavowed operation, and Colonel Lyboc its shadowy face. Find out who these men and women are. How the Disavowed get away with using magic, traveling to other parts of Rifts Earth and even to other dimensions in pursuit of enemies and strategic information that cannot be had through conventional means. Learn about the secret parameters in which these hard-boiled warriors, secretly hand-picked by Joseph Prosek II, operate, why almost every mission is considered a suicide mission, and why they must forever be the Disavowed.

- CS operatives so secret that even the top military and political leaders right up to Emperor Prosek know nothing about them

. And if they did know, would they condone their activity or condemn it?

- Are the Disavowed heroes or renegades? Assassins or soldiers? Madmen or super-patriots? Or a little of them all?

- Unsung heroes who keep the CS safe, or thugs and pawns of a shadow agency within the Coalition government?

- What role does the Vanguard play in this group?

- How do they reward their D-Bee “teammates” when the mission is over?

- What happens to the Disavowed when they have seen or learned too much? Adventure ideas galore and so much more.

- Written by Kevin

Siembieda and Matthew Clements.

- Final page count and cost yet to be determined, but probably 96 pages – $16.95 retail – Cat. No.

villains feared by all, yet they too are True Atlanteans who serve dark forces.

For the first time, much of the story behind True Atlanteans and their secrets are revealed.

- True Atlanteans

NEW! Palladium

Fantasy RPG ®
Sourcebook:
Bizantium and the Northern Islands
™

– Available now

To the civilized world, Bizantium and the waters and lands around it are frightening. A realm of sea serpents, monsters, and barbarians. To the heroes and people who live there, it is a realm of adventure,

beauty and opportunity. One might consider Bizantium as the center of adventure
and mystery in the North.

North of Bizantium
are the Icy Ocean
and Great Ice Shelf, places where only a handful of the
bravest Bizantian
sailors have ever set sail, and the rest of the world knows nothing about. For kingdoms in the south, only a few scholars have ever heard of the Great Ice Shelf or the cannibalistic Necromancers

known as the Iceborn who make the frozen
wasteland their home. Those who have heard tales of the land of ice and

death are convinced they are nothing but the stuff of myth.

Very soon, they will find out otherwise.

And these are but a few of the revelations presented in

Bizantium and the Northern Islands™.

Discover for yourself the wonders and horrors that await.

- Waterchanter
O.C.C. and 20+
magic spells new
to the Fantasy
setting.

- Necromancy
revisited. Many spells new to the Fantasy setting.

- 90+ spells in all, including Ocean Magic for the Waterchanter, Necromancy and more.
- Serpent Chaser, Bizantium

Marine and other new character classes.

- The Iceborn, their man-eating Raiders, Skinbinders and Sea Witches. A forgotten race of monsters who worship death,

wield death magic,
hunt humanoids,
eat their flesh, and wear their skin. A villain you will love
to hate.

- The Iceborn's

Necroilus –
massive vessels
made from the remains of dead
sea serpents and animated by Necromancy to prowl the seas.

- Vengeful
gods, monsters,
sea serpents and
sea monster
creation tables.

- The Seven Treasures touched by the Northern

Gods, lost for centuries, waiting to be found.

- New and old Bizantium ships including the Bireme, Ice Breaker and Battleship.

NEW! Rifts® Special Order Products – PRINT on Demand

The following items are something new,

proposed by and created by Tags, a fan of Rifts® and Palladium Books
. He did the design
work and had the sample products
that are shown here created by

Victor Narvaez
at NY Embroidery
. We liked what these two gents
created, so we are making them
available to you as Special Orders.

Here's how Rifts®
Special Order
Products
will work. In most cases, we have to order a limited
quantity to make manufacturing and shipping cost effective (we can't make just one at a time, but can make a dozen at a time). That means when we have a sufficient number of “Special Orders”

we can have them
made in a week
and shipped in another week or two. And with Autumn and Winter and the holidays coming up fast, this might be a good time to order things like Reporter Bags, Embroidered Hoodies, caps and Three-Season Jackets. Enjoy and think Christmas gifts.

Please Note:

Your credit card
will not be charged
until the Special Order is in actual manufacturing.

this jacket is too
warm for Spring

myself) is the

favorite depiction

of
